Ballinger's Ultimatum

Forces Upon President an Investigation of His Conduct

The Mejority Leaders And Fellow Members of Cabinet Agree With Secretary That Sore Has Reached Such a Point That It Must Be Lanced

Washington, Dec. 20 President Taft today yielded to the demands of both Secretary Ballinger and his critics for a public investigation of the whole matter underlying the so-called Ballinger-Pinchot controversy Mr. Ballinger-served the president virtually with an ultimatum this afternoon to the effect that such an investigation was indeed the price of hi. remaining in the canbiet. He made it clear that he was no longer willing to sit silent and wait for things to "blow over."

Mr. Taft' it is said reluctantly admitted the disar pointment of the hope that the country at large would accept as final his own vindication of Mr. Ballinger in the dismissal of the charge brought against the secretary of the interior by L. R. Glavis, the former special agent of the land office and he reached conclusion that the investigation demanded by both sides was inevitable.

Mr. Ballinger's attitude has the support of the leading republican of both branches of congress senators and representatives who feel, entirely apart from the merits of the controversy that a festering sore of this character must poison the whole system of the the party in power and that it is high time to resort to lancet The leaders are determined that a cleaning of the wound is necessary and they have not hesitated to go to the White House to impress their views on Mr. Taft Conferences in which members of the cabinet congress and tye president have participated have been held for Gets Funny, the last few days. The sitution culminated todao when Messrs. Ballinger Wickersham's office and proceeded thence to the White House where the matter was laid before the president.

Mr. Ballinger told the president that the situation had become intolerable and that though constant charges had come from irresponsible persons he could not longer sit supinely and in justice to himself felt compelled to insist upon an investigation The president was given to under stand that Mr. Ballinger's demaned carried the endorsement of both Messrs. Wickersham and Hitchcock It is known tonight that it has the sympathy also of other members of the struck a bull dog belonging to the cabinet. Phoenix Republican.

In our opinion it will make no difference what the above investi gation amounts to or what the finding of the invesigating committee is, it will be the same long ago as she was walking people have tried Mr. Ballinger and they have convicted him. whether right or wrong, the verdict has been pronounced and Ballinger found guilty and from this public opinion there is no happy life, and move to Holbrook, appeal, As long as Mr, Ballinger remains in public life he will be compelled to listen to the condem ing verdict of the public.
